

ProTrials Named One of Silicon Valley's top 50 Women-Owned Businesses

Mountain View, CA – April 30, 2007—ProTrials Research, Inc., a leader in the clinical research organization industry, announced today that it has been named one of the Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal's top 50 Women Owned Businesses in the Silicon Valley, and the ninth largest women-owned business in Silicon Valley.

Silicon Valley is the home of entrepreneurs, with thousands of businesses rising from the dreams of their founders. Many of those firms, large and small, are the creation of women entrepreneurs. The Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal takes pride each year in honoring the largest and most successful women owned businesses in Silicon Valley. With well over 500 applications this year, The San Jose Business Journal announced and honored this years most successful companies with an award ceremony on April 5, 2007 at the Fairmont Hotel in San Jose.

"We are proud and honored to be included in this exclusive list of women-owned businesses, and firmly believe that it is our commitment to providing the best clinical trial services to our clients and the industry that has helped us grow to become the ninth largest women-owned business in Silicon Valley," commented Jodi Andrews, ProTrials co-founder and CEO. "This type of recognition helps to highlight our company and foster our continued growth in a very competitive industry."
